The Reverend Jeremy Lucas,
Missionary to Namibia
Guest Preacher at St. John's
Sunday, June 7, 2009
8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

The Reverend Jeremy Lucas, former rector of St. Timothy's, Athens, and his wife Penny will be at St. John's on Sunday, June 7. Jeremy will preach at both services and possibly lead a Sunday School class from 9:30 a.m.-10:15 a.m. Please check your e-mails for more information concerning this class. Jeremy and Penny have been appointed missionaries to Namibia on behalf of the Episcopal Church and the Diocese of Alabama. St. John's is supporting Jeremy and Penny through a line-item in our budget for the three years they are there. St. John's undesignated offering from Sunday, June 7, will be given to support his and Penny's work. This offering will be held in a diocesan account, along with all the fund raised for the Lucas's. Any funds that are not used during their three years will remain with the Diocese and will be given to the next appointed missionaries. To learn more about Namibia and the mission work Jeremy and Penny are doing, you may go to their blog, www.missiontonamibia.blogspot.com. We look forward to once again welcoming Penny and Jeremy to St. John's.
